FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Weis Market, Inc. CEO Presents $10,000 to J.C. Blair

Huntingdon, PA, 2/25/2005 – Weis Markets recently celebrated the Grand Re-Opening of its Huntingdon store with a contribution of $10,000 to J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital Foundation. Norman S. Rich, Weis Markets President and CEO, commented at the check presentation ceremony that the donation is a way of giving back to the community as well as helping to fill a vital need in the field of preventive health care. Rich said, “It’s our way of saying thanks to a community that has helped make our store successful.” The gift will be used toward the purchase of an additional mammography system at J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital.

Weis Markets has been in continuous operation in Huntingdon since 1965. It is located at 611-619 Fifteenth Street. The funds for the donation were raised at Weis Markets’ annual golf tournament.

J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital Foundation is committed to ensuring quality health care for the people of Huntingdon County by providing funds to support and enhance the delivery of services at J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital. Created in 2000 as a separate 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation, the Foundation encourages and coordinates philanthropic gifts to support the Hospital. All contributions to the Foundation are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. For more information about the Foundation, please contact Susan Ulrich McLaughlin at J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital at (814) 506-1077, (814) 643-8888 or smclaughlin@jcblair.org.

Norman Rich, CEO and president of Weis Markets, Inc. of Sunbury, presented a check for $10,000 to Garry Pote, chairman of J.C. Blair Memorial Hospital Foundation, and Dr. Maria Pettinger, foundation board member and a radiologist at the hospital, during the Grand Re-Opening of the Weis Market in Huntingdon. The contribution, which was funded through proceeds from Weis Markets’ annual golf tournament, will be used to help purchase an additional mammography system at the hospital. Participating in the check presentation are Bill Peters, Weis general manager, store employees, and Huntingdon Borough mayor Foster Ulrich, who is also a foundation board member.
